PRAYER NEEDS:

Praise: We are very thankful that Bibles can still be distributed despite the COVID-19 situation.

Praise to God for the great receptivity of His Word.

Pray that God will be gracious to end this pandemic soon.

Pray for wisdom for these important people who touch the lives of the military:

1. Chaplain Johannes Waedt
2. Chaplain Michael Schroeder
3. SSgt (ret) Dickes & COL (ret) Meyer
4. Aileen's friend
5. Healing for Else

Psalm 25: 4,5 "Make me know thy ways, O Lord: Teach me Thy paths, Lead me in Thy truth and teach me, For thou art the God of my salvation: For Thee I wait all the day."

"Waiting on God" definitely requires discipline, for so many of us want to be busy all the time and do not heed the psalmist admonition to "Be still and know that I am God."

With all the quarantines concerning the pandemic, we are getting to practice this Christian discipline!

We certainly are waiting on God to open up international travel and believe by end of summer, more flights will resume.

In the meantime, God is still working! Chaplain Waedt wrote and requested more Bibles because he had handed out the last of his stock. A swearing-in ceremony was going to take place soon and we were happy to get more Bibles to him.

Chaplain Waedt was able to spend time with the recruits in Feldkirchen when one young man wanted to be baptized, so the next week, this took place at the service in the picture above.

Chaplain Johannes Waedt at Chapel Service

Dustin (in the middle) is the happy one to acknowledge Christ as his Savior! He, also, is enjoying reading in the Centurion Bible which he had been given.

Also, Chaplain Waedt and his assistant were able to spend time with those who had been confined in the barracks because of the pandemic. The visit resulted in almost all of the soldiers being in the service that Friday!

Most assuredly, God is still working in the hearts of those who are hungry and waiting on Him. He will meet us at the point of our need, especially the need for a Savior! His word for us today is: "Be strong and let your hearts take courage, All you who wait for and confidently expect the Lord." Ps. 31:24

His answers to our prayers will come and spreading of the gospel will indeed be given "face to face" in due season!

Request for Bible

Aileen from Sachsen contacted me on the Operation Centurion, Inc. page on Facebook wanting to know if we could provide a Bible for her friend in the Bundeswehr.

We were happy to be able to contact Udo Dickes, who has been helping us deliver Bibles, to send her a Bible by the German post office.

Also, we were happy that Aileen was concerned enough about her friend that she researched how to find such a Bible that was made especially for the military.

A while ago we mailed several boxes of Bibles to Chap. Michael Schroeder.

SCHWIELOWSEE

He is a Protestant Military Chaplain at the Henning-von-Tresckow Kaserne in Schwielowsee near Potsdam.

Recently he posted this thank you on Roger's Facebook page.

"Thanks to kind Christians from the Gideon League, the Cornelius Association and Operation Centurion, we are able to offer God's Word to our soldiers once again. Our thanks especially to Sascha Schanz, Roger Hogan and Udo Dickes! (The Evangelische Military Pfarramt Schwielowsee team).

It is such a joy to know that the Bibles are wanted and are being distributed throughout Germany!

Chaplain Michael Schroeder and assistant

We have been praying for the Bibles to be read, for spiritual growth, and for many soldiers to come to the Lord while we are "Waiting on God!"

We, also, have been praying for a dear friend in Germany named Else who had a stroke a few weeks ago. She is the mother of COL von Uslar. We are happy to know that she is now talking and we are praying for her continued recovery!

"The Lord is good to those who wait for Him, to the person who seeks Him." Lamentations 3:25
