The Lord is in this project. Despite initial scepticism in India and UK, the Naval and Military Bible Society produced a booklet in 2018.

An initial print run of 1000 copies was made and distributed along with WW1 diaries to Colonels Commandant and other high ranking official guests who attended the centenary commemoration service in the British High Commission last November. Prayerful consideration is being given to further distribution.

In addition, work is due to commence shortly by an Indian MCF group in Cochin on the associated web site www.activeservice.in

This complex project continues to need much discerning prayer

What did we 'hear' in our season of listening prayer?

See the enclosed leaflet - 'MMI the way forward' for CE-TL's Roddy Porter's reflection on the MMI time of listening, using responses shared by supporters and staff.

One of the things we felt led to do was to make our Mission and Vision statements more accessible to the wider Christian community and to potential new supporters.

The newly worded mission and vision statements are :

MMI Mission

'Helping Christians follow Jesus Christ in armed forces around the world.'

MMI Vision

'To see what God might do if every military Christian had someone to stand with'

The Lord is doing new things in MMI's Regions and He is inviting us to join in. We have not sensed that MMI's Vision and Mission are 'off beam' and we think that the Lord is drawing us into transformation, not revolution.

The 7 days visit to Madagascar capital Antananarivo 04-10 Mar 2019, was focused on consolidating the integration of the Malgache MCF (MKVF) into the AMCF and preparing a Chaplaincy training for Sep-Oct 2019.

The idea of a visit to Madagascar was born six months ago at the Pan African Conference in Abuja in September 2018. The aim was to encourage this MCF (VMK), which has potential to be a 'light-house' between Comoro Islands, Seychelles and Mauritius in the region South East of Africa, thanks to its dedicated team under the lead of Colonel (ret) Mamy Randrianarivelo, a gentle but strong and dedicated leader.

The team as usual was composed of Eric Mandille for MMI and Augustin Tchenkoua from CCru/Military Ministries as a coordinator for AMCF.

Madagascar, a former French protectorate from 1896 to 1960, is a mainly bilingual country. Malagasy (or Malgache in French) an Australasian language is the vernacular language, whereas French is the administrative language for roughly 26 million inhabitants in a country 2.5 times the size of the UK or 0,8 times France. Statistics suggest the population is 45% Christian, 52% Animists, 1% Muslim, 2% Atheists. There is a striking sense of unity amongst the Christians - a result of a brotherhood inherited from the persecution of Christians in the mid 19th century. The consequence is a peculiar institution called the FFKM, the Malagasy Church Council grouping the main denominations such as the Roman Catholic Church, the Jesus Christ Church of Madagascar (Evangelical Presbyterian and the biggest one), the Lutheran Malagasy Church and the Anglican Church. There are presently

Our visit was blessed by the impressive commitment of many Christian Generals from the armed forces and Police, of which all Chiefs of Staff are rooted in prayer and adoration. They clearly are a blessing for their Country.

One of them, General Ramasitera the AF Chief of Staff (pictured above), is a key supporter of the Christian cause, firm and calm as most fighter pilots are. He is acting as a promoter, supporter and fast tracker for the full implementation of a Madagascar Chaplaincy for the Armed Forces and Security Forces.

This generation of committed Christian leaders is the result of long and fruitful work done by the VMK (MCF) in the last 20 years. Praise the Lord for his servants and their dedication to carry the Good News in the armed forces.

Corruption is an issue and there is an expectation for a Christian Chaplaincy to deliver ethical improvements.

The three meetings with the MoD, Mol, CDS were conducted in the presence of Pastor Michael, General Ramasitera, and Colonel Randrianarivelo head of the Madagascar MCF (VMK). The conclusion of the three meetings was that the authorities of Madagascar agreed to support (finance, facilities, security, catering, housing) the chaplaincy training provided all security forces could attend the teaching. The reason for this enthusiasm is the issue of fighting corruption in the Security Forces, which has been promoted to a "cause célèbre" in the Country. Both Eric and Augustin, having being part of IAEC (International Association of Evangelical Chaplains) organised training, are aware this could lead to confusion by targetting different audiences and the number of trainees could rise to almost 100 candidates.

General Ramasitera and Colonel (ret) Randrianarivelo had fully understood the opportunity of AMCF/MMI team visit for the country and in order to extend the benefit, organized a half a day conference on the Biblical view of the military profession and the relationship between a commanding officer and the Chaplain. We were challenged by the honest and straightforward questions raised by military personnel about the role of a Chaplain and the need to develop that ministry, at present partially covered by the Madagascar MCF. One of the result of this interaction is the commitment of the Gideons Madagascar to get camouflaged NT in French delivered as soon as possible, and a next order to print the existing Malagasy NT Gideon in a similar camouflaged cover next year.

To conclude we praise the Lord for the determined Madagascar MCF who is carrying the Chaplaincy project and for the leadership of AF General Ramasitera spreading the wings of Faith in his country.

four Chaplains in the armed forces, each one representing one of those Churches, and all based in the capital Antananarivo. One of them, Pastor Michael is the coordinator of this soon growing chaplaincy.

Prayer

Season of Prayer - What did we hear?

In July 2018 MMI entered a season of listening prayer, seeking the Lord for his way forward for the ministry. In July, August and September we had a day of prayer and fasting, followed by a week of Prayer and asked you all for feed back from your times of prayer. All the responses have been compiled and prayerfully considered by the EC & trustees and have resulted in CE/TL Roddy's 'Higher Commander's Intent' document (that is the Lord's - not Roddys!!) A summary of this document is enclosed called 'MMI's Way Forward'. Of prayer it says

'Prayer has always been central to MMI's work but the Lord is calling us to deeper commitment in prayer as a way of life. Much of what we have heard has been about waiting, being silent, being patient..... An interpretation of Jeremiah 18 (the Potter and the clay) is that we have become rigid, dried out in prayer; our praying and planning (P&P) needs revitalising. God wants us malleable, fresh, watered and waiting for Him to shape as He sees fit.....' Full report on page 3 of MMI's the way forward.

In response to this we are focussing on increasing and improving our prayer especially our pray & plan for the regions and also increasing our prayer support. We are looking to revitalize the Regional Pray and Plan Groups (RPPG) with additional members. These regional groups are strategic pray & plan groups who meet 3 or 4 times a year. In addition we want to encourage supporters to meet with 2 or 3 others to form a prayer support group (PSG). PSGs can meet as often as they agree to, can just use the Quarterly Prayer Brief or First Wednesday Reflection to pray or can contact prayer@mmi.org.uk for updates, especially if they have an interest in a specific region or event.

Our prayer supporters are amazing and committed prayers, but as the ministry increases we need to increase our prayer support base. Maybe there are people in your church or amongst your friends who don't yet know or support MMI and could be part of your prayer group. Our hope is to have MMI prayer support groups in each country where there is a resident MMI team member. Our prayer support base has been UK based, but now it needs to spread to our regions - like seeds being carried in the wind.

Can you partner with us in prayer?

You can receive short email prayer needs (just a couple of lines) or a longer prayer brief on request, to use in your personal and church prayers.

If you would like to receive our succinct, email prayers as they are needed, or our First Wednesday of the month Reflection and Prayer sign up at prayer@mmi.org.uk.

Want to be more involved??

Join one of the Regional Pray and Plan Groups (RPPGs), strategically praying and planning with the RTL for the ministry in the region, and supporting the RTL in prayer. RPPGs pray together quarterly - just 4 times a year. If location is a problem you can join in by skype.

Middle East

Seed planting in Lebanon and Jordan Nov 18 and in Israel.

by Middle East RTL Richard Meryan

" We have planted a seed in Lebanon, now it needs to grow and flower. It was so good to meet four serving soldiers and also an enthusiastic pastor with 23 years Army service. We also need to pray that those who did not see me this time, and those who could not, will do so next time I'm there. No doubt, it was absolutely worthwhile going; spending time with Jobran from Syria together with Richard Sandy was a bonus."

Richard also visited Jordan, where as well as having the opportunity to pray and plan with AMCF VP for the region BGen Isam Oumeish, he met a retired WO1 now Baptist Pastor who is excited at the prospect of working among the serving soldiers. The baptist pastor had met 5 serving Jordanian soldiers at a youth event he was running and as a result set up a local WhatsApp group to keep in close touch with them. As phones are not allowed on base, communication occurs at the weekend, and each month the pastor expects to meet face to face with them in Amman. Richard also met with a serving Air Force Captain and serving Army major in Jordan.

Give thanks for Matan n Israel and for the wonderful ARROW programme run during the autumn for 23 young school leavers who are now serving Messianic Believers in the IDF. How amazing that such a deep investment is made in them to ensure they stand firm for The Lord while serving. Do pray for them!

Middle East Regional Pray and Plan Group (RPPG).

"I am greatly indebted to the RPPG who support the ministry wholeheartedly. We would love others who share a passion for the Middle East to join us in meeting every 3 to 4 months. Meetings are held near Warminster, but you join in by Skype/Facetime/WhatsApp if you are unable to travel there. Contact RTL Richard Meryan richard@mmi.org.uk if interested.

South Asia

On the road alone in India and Bhutan

RTL S Asia Paddy and Pastor Blesson had planned an Indian Roadtrip in November 18 to visit military communities with the aim of establishing new MCFs, planning to end up in Bangalore where they were to attend the Pan India conference. MMI's financial situation was such that Paddy was not able to travel to India in Nov and so Pastor Blesson undertook part of the road trip alone and represented MMI at the Pan India conference.

Pastor Blesson shares his experience:

"First we planned to go to Gowhati in Assam but the trip was cancelled in the end by Col Santhosh (Stanley's son). We are now planning to visit Assam in 2019. So I travelled first to Pune and stayed in the YMCA. My close friend Binu who is a mission leader in Pune helped to find retired officers. He took me to meet Col Kumar, who is the General Manager of a military Sub Area Canteen. He is a committed Christian and we shared about AMCF. Then we went to meet Col Jairaj Bala and his wife Lt Regina both retired and in ministry. His son-in-law is a serving Col in Assam. Binu introduced me to Lt Col Annie and her husband who are running a vibrant Church in Pune. I had Sunday fellowship with the Pune Discipleship and shared the word here. After Sunday service, we gathered all Military personal and formed an MCF

India group. A serving Navy pilot took me out to lunch to talk further.

That night I flew to Chennai. Chennai is a big city with huge military stations. The challenge of locating Christian Officers was helped by finding a retired NCO who is the Pastor of AoG Church in Avady Chennai. He brought a few retired IAF officers together and we formed another MCF India group here.

I then flew to Bangalore to meet serving Engineer NCOs. Sergeant J is a tough, black belt in Karate. He came to the Lord and is now serving as a Subedar in Madras Engineers in Bangalore. He has gathered around 50 serving soldiers and is very passionate for God's ministry. I met all of them in a house and then met with Col Koshy at his home and where we prayed for the success of the Pan India Conference.

Praise the Lord for Bhutan MCF.

After the Pan India conference in Bangalore, I went to Bhutan landing at Paro international airport. Bhutan is a small Himalayan country with less than a million population. The terrain is very dangerous for travel as it is full of rocky mountains. Indians have a strong connection with this country and are allowed free entry without a visa. For others, Bhutan charges 250 US dollars for visa alone.

The Christian population is less than 2% and open outreach is not allowed. Pastor Dan is running two house fellowships. He shared with us how his late father-in-Law Damcho, built a church hall and house. Government officials objected and stopped the construction. The king came to hear about the construction and ordered work to be continued. That order is framed and kept in the church hall. I gave glory to God and felt personally called to visit this group regularly and to disciple them. Blesson."

Amazing NCO fellowships discovered in South India -

'The road trip' spring 2019 by RTL S Asia Paddy Hughes

Thank you for your prayers which have sustained Pastor Blesson and myself. The Spring road trip has gone well and I believe many of our encounters have been divinely inspired.

I arrived in India as war appeared to be breaking out. Flights North out of Delhi were cancelled as IAF Mig jets were launched on retaliatory strikes against Pakistan. We had previously met the Wing Commander Engineer, who had the unenviable job of keeping aged Mig 21s flying. The family of the captured IAF pilot was known to MCF India. There was a sense of being involved.

The first meeting in Delhi was a positive start. The new Indian MCF resolved to write their constitution, set up an office and appoint a prayer secretary and support team.

Pastor Blesson

We moved on to Chennai (S India) where we were looked after by a retd police commissioner. Blesson gave a powerful message at a gathering of police and prayed over several police families .

We went to a gathering of 9 former NCOs, all Hindu converts, all pastors or helping to run churches. A Sergeant and his wife who hosted us have a deliverance ministry - much in demand amongst the idol worshipping community. We were invited to pray for a young woman whose husband is paralysed. As demons left her, a clock fell off the wall. Next to the clock was a framed text "Thou shalt have no other gods before me". The deliverance ministry is less about signs and wonders and more about the salvation of souls. Prayer and follow up pastoral care is important in deliverance ministry.

In Bangalore we met committed Christian Col Rejiv, who had just come from the funeral service of his still born grandchild. It was Rejiv who had the vision of the Active Service Booklet.

We also attended an amazing serving NCOs fellowship in Bangalore of mainly Hindu converts, meeting in a house owned by a saintly single lady. The leader, Sergeant J, is a military band master. The worship time was special and Blesson gave a powerful talk. This group meet together every few months and run outreach services in the villages including healing and deliverance. Changing lives, shaping nations...the cutting edge of MCF India?

In Cochin we attended a Sunday service in a church run by a retd Naval Commodore. There was a strong serving navy presence at the service. Great fellowship, great teaching. Their church mission is also all about changing lives, changing the nation.

This trip was so encouraging after being briefed a few years back of the vision of some well connected Christians in Delhi ...that the army would be the salt and light in Indian society.

It's happening. Thanks be to God.

Europe

EMCM says farewell to Church house Lubbecke

by Torbjörn Boström AMCF VP ENE

We have left Church House, Lübbecke, for the last time and are so very thankful to everyone who has made Europe Military Christian Meeting (EMCM) such a wonderful event in the AMCF Europe calendar.

"The first European Military Christian Meeting was held in 2003 at the British Army's Church House chaplaincy centre in Lübbecke, Germany. It was the brainchild of the two new AMCF VPs, Torbjörn Boström and Mark Fillingham who had discerned under God the need for a forum where European MCF leaders could meet for mutual encouragement, fellowship, teaching and prayer. It has been held almost annually since, growing from around 28 delegates to a capacity crowd of over 50."

To be able to reach the people in greatest need, and to support the admin, a small P&P team was developed whose members have varied over the years and I am most grateful to them all. It has also been wonderful talking with MCF leaders to try to fulfil their needs and those of their MCFs, but if you compare the programme today with the one from 2003 you will not find any major differences: alongside the original emphasis on Bible teaching we now include more practical applications which, hopefully, give tools for use in the daily work at home. We also now include dedicated prayer times to seek the Lord together and lift individual and MCF needs to Him. We have also found that we humans need to relax so in the past few years an evening has been included when we entertain each other.

Recently we have widened the scope of our delegates from MCF leaders to include potential 'Joshuas' who can take the work forward in the future.

Mark Fillingham left us to be with the Lord far too early and so Brian Parker took over as AMCF VP ESC. Brian took on EMCM with great enthusiasm and I am very thankful to both of them for all they achieved. Now the baton for Europe South and Central has passed to Rev. Mike Terry and he together with the AMCF VP Europe East and North is leading us into the future.

"I think there is a definite future for a (slightly) larger EMCM, close to a good transport hub but which is not too expensive! Aware that Church House would close soon, we held a three day P&P in June 2017 to seek God's leading. We did not get a sense that we should stop EMCM, but rather that God was giving us some principles for continuing the work, so we're looking actively for a new venue – keep praying!" Mike Terry AMCF VP ESC

Finally, but most importantly, we are extremely grateful to our gracious Lord for having led us so clearly along this path for so long, and for doing His work among us through EMCM. Please join us in prayer that God will show us soon what He wants us to do next and where to do it as we seek a new and slightly larger venue.

God bless you all in this wonderful and important work.

Unity in Christ at EMCM

by RTL Europe Rev Grozdan Stoevski

“The Promised Land”- was the theme of the 15th EMCM which took place in February at Church House, Lubbecke with 52 delegates representing 23 countries. Rev Mike Terry introduced the main theme of the Promised Land, based on Deuteronomy 34:1-12; Mark 9: 1-6; Acts 1: 1-11, and Rev Grozdan Stoevski did two sessions on “Partnership for the Gospel”, looking at the example of apostles Paul and Barnabas and the NT churches working together (Acts 11-14).

The “all one in Christ Jesus” motto of the AMCF had at least two visible expressions. During the Holy Communion service, a love offering was collected and presented to Armen Maghakalyan, a pastor in the Nagorni Karabakh region of Armenia, to his utter surprise and amazement. The gift was donated to support his volunteer work of spiritual care to the soldiers and officers in this troubled region of the world. (Pictured on page 6)

The other expression of unity in Christ was the presence and active participation of Col Jan and Elyse Demeyere from Belgium, who worship in the Roman Catholic tradition. Jan agreed to do an interview with Grozdan for MMI’s Supporters Day. In this brief interview, he spoke of the calling of God, friendship, family and unity in Christ as experienced by all at Lubbecke.

Although Church House closes in June of 2019, we believe God will continue to use EMCM as a way to serve the international military Christian community by encouraging the spiritual calling, friendship and creating a sense of belonging, a

A highlight of the EMCM was the recognition of the Spanish MCF with the official AMCF Certificate, presented to Juanma Nombela by the

The story of Juanma is a remarkable witness of the work of the Holy Spirit. During AMCF GI 2014 in South Africa the worship band at the main sessions needed a drummer and a lead guitar player, which led to Juanma meeting Grozdan (MMI RTL for Europe) on stage. They immediately struck up a friendship and Juanma invited Grozdan and his wife Slavica to attend the annual gathering of the Spanish Police Association near Valencia, Spain. The next year Grozdan and Mike Terry spoke at the Iberian Conference in Portugal, where Juanma brought a large team. God worked through this friendship and fellowship and Juanma was inspired to transform his police organization to include all branches of the armed forces. Its name was changed to “Mission 365”, as all police officers, military and border guard personnel serve all year around! In addition, he has participated three times in the EMCM gathering where has joined the impromptu worship team, led by Maj Gen Roddy Porter.

Introducing Dražen Hrženjak MMI’s new European field worker.

It was during the heat of the Yugoslav wars that Dražen joined the „Wolves“ Brigade as a volunteer fighter in the Croat Armed Forces and where he served on the front lines in the next 3 years. After the end of the war, he was invited in 1998 by a colleague to a worship service in a local evangelical church. Up until this time, he was not a committed believer and the Bible for him was a very wise book written by people who had an answer to every question of life. Due to his combat experience and especially having witnessed two of his military comrades die, he was convinced that there must be a God, so he agreed to go to the service. Soon after that he stopped smoking marihuana and decided to become a follower of Christ. In 10 October 1998 he was baptized in the Adriatic sea, at the Crikvenica Christian Retreat Centre, he says “I found new and deeper friendships in the church, there I met also my wife, Kristina, soon my mother and brother became believers too and several years later God blessed us with our son, Bozidar.”

In 2011 having attended a funeral of a combat friend, he realized the need of spiritual care and ministry to soldiers and war veterans and so Dražen started the Croat association of military veterans. In 2013 he attended MEO training in South Korea and soon after that was visited by Europe RTL Grozdan, AMCF VP Mike Terry and Col (ret) Igor Sawicky who encouraged him to include serving military personnel as well as the war veterans. The Croat MCF was recognized as the Croat Military Fellowship ‘Together in war, together in Christ’ and became part of the Association of Military Christian Fellowships (AMCF).

In the next few years God really blessed Dražen and the Croat MCF. In 2014 he received his BA in Theology. In 2015 the Zagreb Municipality recognized his work and provided a small office space in the center of town for the Croat MCF. The same year, with the help of MMI, he organized the first Croat Interaction, an international conference for military Christians with participants from 8 countries. The next year he launched the ‘Storm of the soul’ documentary film, which included testimonies of war veterans and how faith in God had helped them cope with loss of loved ones, PTSD etc. In 2016 he completed the Chaplains Interaction Course in San Antonio, Texas and the next year was commissioned as a Chaplain. In 2019 Dražen has been invited to join the MMI Europe team.

The latest news is that just a month ago the Croat MCF signed a Contract with the Croat government to receive a grant and provide professional care for 20 war veterans. We wonder how ‘How will God use Dražen as a member of the MMI Europe team!’
